ABOUT BLAK BREW

Troy (Tati Tati, Wadi Wadi, Muti Muti and Wamba Wamba man) & Cerisa Benjamin (Walpiri, Gurindji and Jawoyn woman) are the founders and operators of Blak Brews. They also got hitched a few years back.

They didn't ever imagine becoming tea barons but like most romances, tea popped out of nowhere and stole their heart. What started as a side thing, turned into the main thing.

The first tea was dunked in 2023 and the first bag sold a few weeks later. Since then they've expanded, brought in some great minds, got featured by a famous chef or two and started planning to take over the world... or your kettle.

SELECTION OF INDIGENOUS ORGANIC BLAK BREW TEAS

Aussie Earl Grey

Organic black leaves blended with our signature mix. Delicately floral with citrus notes. Great for energy, a healthy heart, digestion and its full of antioxidants.

Minty Green

Using the same plant that our ancestors have been serving for thousands of years, this tea is a blend of the native round leaf mint and peppermint. The flavour: Strong mint that's both refreshing and aromatic.

Lemon Myrtle

Handpicked and sourced from the highest quality leaves, this caffeine free herbal tisane is both invigorating and soothing; and used medicinally for generations.

Red Centre

Rosehip, Hibiscus, Strawberry Gum, Quandong, Caffeine free
Welcome to the heart of Australia, where vibrant hibiscus blends with towering strawberry gums under a big blue sky.

Desert Sunrise

Australian Sencha, Strawberry Gum, Desert Finger Lime, Calendula, Natural Quandong Green tea, but make it down under. Zesty with a side of balanced fruit.

Kakadu Sunset

Black Tea, Daintree Cacao Husks, Desert Finger Lime, Calendula Petals, Cornflower Petals, Safflower Petals, Kakadu Plum.
Grown locally at Queensland's Arakai Estate, this primo blend is infused with cacao husks, safflower and calendula petals, and Kakadu plum.
